UNIFORMS to YOU

may we open a few doors for you?

Through our doorway you receive immediate access to a stronger front-of-the-house image, eminent product value, and complete solutions for all your uniform needs.

Within these pages you will see collections expressing a range of images and styles...befitting a five-star urban hotel, a luxurious resort, or a towering residential property. Yet, this is only the beginning. Our custom and in-stock collections are also available in many fabrics and colors. All told, each collection represents a distinguished and economical blend of quality custom and in-stock garments. This clever mix proves that unique solutions need not be costly.

Program flexibility allows us to keep our doors open, fulfilling large or small requests, short- or long-term needs. Because we stress long-term product availability, your solution will endure.

To keep these doors open we maintain an extraordinary sales support network, with sales showrooms in virtually every major U.S. market, as well as Canada and Mexico. Our state-of-the-art order entry system guarantees easy ordering, and we offer the industry's best distribution center to ensure quick, efficient order fulfillment.

We are a company built on uniformity – in our designs as well as our support system. Our continued dedication to image, value, quality, flexible programming, and service will forever remain the same – when you step through our doorway today or when you re-order tomorrow.

collection

When classic elegance converges with contemporary sleek, the result is magnificent. You see the effect in a majestic city skyline, in a well appointed room, or in a formal uniform gracefully softened by modern color and detail. Our custom Split Shawl Collection proves the point, with an updated collar inset balancing an otherwise traditional double-breasted jacket. It is a sophisticated look that travels beyond time and trend.
